R & Y AUGOUSTI

FRANCE

Husband and wife team Ria and Yiouri Augousti use a mix of unconventional fabrics to create the modern vintage style that has become the signature of Augousti. Their main influence comes from the Art Deco period in the 1930's when parchment (goatskin), shagreen (stingray skin), ostrich, snake, lizard, crocodile and exotic shells were used to make furniture and decorative objects. Ria and Yiouri have now used these exotic materials with other more conventional materials to produce a sophisticated assortment of accessories and furniture. Their collection includes items from Kifu Paris and Patrick Coard Paris.

DVELAS

SPAIN

DVELAS designs and manufactures customised shade sails, beautiful lamps and outdoor lasting furniture using sails recovered from maxi yachts. Sails have been the pillar and the engine of great adventures. They are living examples of objects whose essence maintains a free spirit. They were allies of the breeze and salty-hearted companions for sailors who once dreamed of getting lost and finding themselves watching the horizon. Fabrics that have been conceived to make possible the dreams of those who love sailing and freedom, deserve our admiration, respect, and special dedication. This is the purpose for which DVELAS was born. To give a second life to a material whose nature is to continue making history by creating spaces with soul.
